

Weekly Citizen

HUGHES & MCNEIGHT, PUBLISHED

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
Daily Citizen, per year, $6.00
Weekly, 25 cents.

John A. Toms, a well known Santa Fe railway official, is in the city from Las Vegas.

Burton Monahan, connected with the Astor Cattle and Land company, is in the city from Holbrook, Arizona.

October 17th, Masonic grand lodge of New Mexico will meet in this city. The visiting Masons will be royally entertained.

M. S. Otero and J. L. Perez were passengers going north this morning, the former for Santa Fe and the latter for Bernallio.

Hon. A. M. Blackwell, of the wholesale grocery establishment of Gross, Blackwell & Co., came in from Las Vegas last night.

The regular semi-monthly dance will take place at the Commercial Club this evening. The dance will no doubt be largely attended.

J. F. Hinckley, ex-territorial legislative representative from Lincoln county, passed through the city for Santa Fe this morning. He is a democratic delegate.

Jerome Martin, a brother of W. E. Martin, secretary of the New Mexico penitentiary, passed through the city for Santa Fe this morning. He is a ranchman in Dona Ana county.

John L. Caldwell, of Albuquere, Pa., a late arrival here, and a friend of Capt. J. B. Farwell, was shown the sights of the city and being made acquainted generally yesterday by Mr. Farwell.

John E. Griffith, the popular clerk of the Fifth judicial district, came in from Socorro this morning, and proceeded on to Santa Fe, where he will take in the territorial republican convention there-to-day.

Attorney John H. Stingley introduced yesterday a friend of his from Chicago, Andrew Christensen, who expects to remain here. The gentleman was formerly connected with a large publishing house of Chicago.

To-night the regular fortnightly dance at the Commercial Club will take place. Extra preparations are being made to make the occasion an enjoyable one; it is expected that there will be a large attendance.

The El Paso base ball team last night games in their recent series with Tucson by the scores of 17 to 2 and 5 to 2. This should clinch the pennant offered by an El Paso newspaper for the Albuquerque Browns.

John A. Riley, division superintendent of Bradstreet's Commercial Agency, with headquarters and home at Los Angeles, with his wife, left this morning for Indianapolis, Ind., where they will visit James Whitcomb Riley, the famous poet, brother of Mr. Riley.

It is understood that Judge A. B. Fall, one of the democratic delegates from Dona Ana county, was on the early morning train en route to Santa Fe and it is also learned, although he has declined to accept the nomination for delegate to congress, that friends propose to push him forward when the convention meets to-morrow.

In regard to the false alarm of fire sent in last night Chief Huppé should interview Merchants' Fire Protection Association, who stated to The Citizen representative that he observed certain actions from certain people that convinced him that the fire alarm box at the corner of Second street and Railroad avenue was tampered with.

Judge Parker opened court at Las Cruces Monday. Assistant United States Attorney Money, who was here during the past few days attending court, left for the above point to look after legal matters Postoffice Inspector C. L. Doran and Deputy United States Marshal Frank Hall, who had returned from a official visit to northern Arizona, will be held at the home of Mrs. Grout Hill south Broadway, to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, for which an interesting program has been prepared. All members and friends cordially invited.

I. B. Hanna came in from the west yesterday morning and continued north to Santa Fe. Mr. Hanna is the supervisor of forest reserves in Arizona and New Mexico, and has just returned from an official visit to northern Ar-

This is the season when mothers are alarmed on account of croup. It is quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure, which children like to take. Berry Drug Co., Cosmopolitan Drug Store.

The advertisement of pure breed Merino sheep in another column of this issue should be of special interest to sheepmen. C. H. Elmdorff, of San Francisco offers 100 cross-breed bucks at reasonable figures. When these wool bucks have been used a return to Merino is specially desirable.

On Friday evening October 8th, Rabbits Dr. Jacobs will be present to deliver in Temple Albert his famous lecture on "Gladstone, the Statesman and Reformer." An invitation is extended to all who desire to hear this interesting description of England's celebrated leader, to attend the lecture.

Rev. C. A. Bunker, pastor of the Lead Avenue Methodist church, and Rev. G. S. Madden, of Bland, have gone to El Paso to attend the sessions of the Ministerial association of the New Mexico English mission, which began there yesterday. Both gentlemen will take an active part in the meeting.

The best method of cleansing the liver is the use of the famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Biscuits. Easy to take. Never grips. Berry Drug Co., Cosmopolitan Drug Store.

H. J. Emerson, formerly in the Bank of Commerce here, but lately connected with the Mutual Life Insurance company, has decided to remain in New England, where he has made a success of his new occupation. Mr. Emerson has evidently found his forte as he is reported as being very successful in the work here before going east.

Samuel Michaelis, who was east on business and pleasure, passed through the city last night for Magdalena, where he is the head clerk at the store of Dunegan Bros.

P. J. Towner, the Colorado cattle importer, from New Mexico, came in from the north last night, to mingle during the day with the people of the territorial metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Guillebeau, of the Harvey house, drove to Bernallio early this morning on a visit to the duck ponds, where they expect to bag a number of the web-footed tribe.

Miss McMillin, wife of the marshal, returned home last night, from a visit to Burlingame, Kansas. The marshal's mother accompanied her, and will visit with her son here for awhile.

Miss Cooper, the sister of the brick contractor, who has been visiting here with her brother and his family since before the late fair, returned to her home at Greeley, Colorado, this morning.

George Scottie, the First street merchant, is lying at his home, very sick. His trouble is an affection of the heart and dropsy. He is unable to eat and cannot sleep. His condition is considered serious.

L. A. Judt, the well known tinner, and the owner of several of the finest and best springs at the famous Jemez hot springs resort, is still in the city, and will remain sometime, being located at the store of E. P. Post & Co.

The members of the Congregational church and Young People's society, are preparing to leave the summer work of the best and the management of the floor perfectly satisfactory. Everyone present enjoyed themselves to their utmost capacity. The following were present: Messrs. and Madames F. McKee, A. B. McGaffey, R. S. Crockett, F. Whiting, James Grunfeld, W. H. Hahn, Mrs. W. H. Matson, Misses Nina Giese of Santa Fe, Lura Fox, Howenstein, Sadie Holman, Mabel Flitch, Elizabeth Moore, J. H. Paxton, R. L. Frost, Sam Pierson, Fred Newman, Ben Holloman, Dr. Haines, Judge J. W. Crumpler, C. E. Newcomer, Sam Neustadt, A. Faber, Harry Weill, Leon Hertzog, Sol Weill, F. F. McCann, O. A. Mason, F. W. Schmalzack, J. H. Peabody, Ernest Meyers.

and refreshments of an appetizing nature were served to the guests. Miss Harding was a passenger on the north bound train this morning.

R. W. D. Bryan is home again from Silver City, where he went on legal business.

G. Wilson, the New Mexico manager of the Continental Oil company, is in Las Vegas.

Burton Monahan, connected with the Astor Cattle and Land company, is in the city from Holbrook, Arizona.

October 17th, Masonic grand lodge of New Mexico will meet in this city. The visiting Masons will be royally entertained.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.

Rev. W. B. Johnson, wife and daughters, are now at Las Vegas, where Rev. Johnson will take charge of the A. M. E. church of that town.

A. Montoya, a well-known Italian gentleman of this city, is in Santa Fe, where he will visit relatives and friends.

J. M. McCutcheon, of the Industrial Advertiser, although no delegate is at Santa Fe attending the political conventions.